CIVIL ACTION NO. 5:17-cv-00143-JLS
JURY DEMAND

AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES FOR VIOLATIONS
OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT, 29 U.S.C. § 201 ET SEQ., AND
THE PENNSYLVANIA MINIMUM WAGE ACT, 43 P.S. §333.104(C).

Plaintiffs, Rebekah Houck, Brandi Jakubec, and Abigayle Blizzard, , by and through their attorneys, Harold M. Goldner of Kraut Harris, P.C. and Aaron B. Maduff and Walker R. Lawrence, of Maduff & Maduff, LLC, for their Complaint against Defendants, Fawn Shoppe, LLC and Kristin Swati, allege and state as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiffs, Rebekah Houck, Brandi Jakubec, and Abigayle Blizzard, worked in a warehouse for Fawn Shoppe LLC. (hereafter "Fawn Shoppe"). Fawn Shoppe is a high end online boutique. Plaintiffs were employed as warehouse workers. Fawn Shoppe is solely owned by Kristin Swati. Swati paid Plaintiffs a salary for the last several years. Defendants briefly changed their pay practice to pay hourly, but then changed them back to paying a salary. All three have been working more than 40 hours per week. This case is filed to recover unpaid overtime wages and premiums.

THE PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, Rebekah Houck, (hereinafter “Houck”) resides within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. She was, at all times relevant to this complaint, an employee within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. §203(e), as well as within the meaning of the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act and Wage Payment and Collection Law. Ms. Houck’s consent to be a Plaintiff pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b) is attached as group Exhibit A to the Complaint.

3. Plaintiff, Brandi Jakubec (hereinafter “Jakubec”) resides within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. She was, at all times relevant to this complaint, an employee within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. §203(e), as well as within the meaning of the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act and Wage Payment and Collection Law. Ms. Jakubec’s consent to be a Plaintiff pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b) is attached as group Exhibit A to the Complaint.

4. Plaintiff, Abigayle Blizzard (hereinafter “Blizzard”), is 18 years old. She resides within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. She was, at all times relevant to this complaint, an employee within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. §203(e), as well as within the meaning of the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act and Wage Payment and Collection Law. Ms. Blizzard’s consent to be a Plaintiff pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b) is attached as group Exhibit A to the Complaint.

5. Defendant, Fawn Shoppe, LLC, (hereinafter “Fawn Shoppe”) is a New York corporation with its principal place of business in Pennsylvania and doing business within the territorial limits of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Defendant Fawn Shoppe is and was at all relevant times an employer and an enterprise engaged in commerce or the production of goods for commerce within the definitions of 29 U.S.C. §§ 203(d) and 203(s).

6. Defendant Kristin Swati (hereinafter "Swati"), is an individual, who was at all relevant times an employer and an enterprise engaged in commerce or the production of goods for commerce within the definitions of 29 U.S.C. §§ 203(d) and 203(s). Defendant Swati is the owner of Defendant Fawn Shoppe and is responsible for paying Plaintiffs for hours worked as well as directing Plaintiffs' work.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims against the Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b) and 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1337. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the State Law Claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

8. Venue is proper in this District as the acts giving rise to this cause of action took place in this District and Defendant regularly conducts business in this District.

FACTS

9. Defendants run a high end online boutique.

10. Plaintiffs were employees working in a warehouse preparing packages for shipment by third party shippers such as Federal Express.

11. Houck was paid a salary of approximately $4,200 per month and began working for Defendants in or around August 2014 and left in early December 2016.

12. Jakubec was paid a salary of approximately $3,000 per month and began working for Defendants in or around September 2015 and left at the end of October 2016.

13. Blizzard was paid a salary of approximately $2,166.67 per month and began working for Defendants in or around August 2015 and left at the end of October 2016.

14. All three Plaintiffs typically worked in excess of 40 hours per week during the time each worked for Defendants.

15. While Schedules varied from week to week, Houck typically worked the following schedule:

- a) Monday – 13.5 Hours
- b) Tuesday – 13.5 Hours
- c) Wednesday – 13.5 Hours
- d) Thursday – 13.5 Hours
- e) Friday – 13.5 Hours
- f) Saturday – 9 hours
- g) Sunday – 6 hours

16. As a result, while there was variation from week to week, in a typical week Houck worked around 85.5 hours per week.

17. Jakubec's schedule varied widely from week to week, however, it was not uncommon that she would work the following hours during the week.

- a) Monday – 13 Hours
- b) Tuesday – 12 Hours
- c) Wednesday – 12 Hours
- d) Thursday – 8 Hours
- e) Friday – 10 Hours
- f) Saturday – 6 hours

18. As a result, while there was variation from week to week, it was not uncommon for Jakubec to work 61 hours in a week.

19. Blizzard's schedule varied widely from week to week, however, it was not uncommon that she would work the following hours during the week.

- a) Monday – 13 Hours

- b) Tuesday – 10 Hours
- c) Wednesday – 12 Hours
- d) Thursday – 12 Hours
- e) Friday – 10 Hours

20. As a result, while there was variation from week to week, it was not uncommon for Blizzard to work 57 hours in a week.

21. Plaintiffs were not paid overtime premiums.

22. Swati was well aware that Plaintiffs were working more than 40 hours per week.

23. Indeed, Defendants expected Plaintiffs to work in excess of 40 hours per week.

24. Plaintiffs were non-exempt employees and were entitled to be paid overtime premiums.

COUNT I

Demand For Relief For Violations of The Fair Labor Standards Act 29 U.S.C. §201 et seq. For Failure to Pay Overtime

25. Plaintiffs restate and re-allege paragraphs 1 through 24 as paragraph 25 of this Count I.

26. Pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §207, Defendants were and remain obligated to compensate Plaintiffs at a rate of time and one half for all hours worked over forty in any week.

27. Plaintiffs were regularly permitted, encouraged, and/or required to work over forty hours per week but were not properly paid an overtime premium for hours worked in excess 40 in a week.

28. By failing to properly pay overtime due to Plaintiffs, Defendants willfully, knowingly, and/or recklessly violated the FLSA which requires overtime to be paid to non-exempt employees.

29. Because of Defendants' policy and practice of withholding overtime pay, Plaintiffs have been damaged in that they are not receiving wages due to them pursuant to the FLSA.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant them the following relief:

- a) A declaratory judgment that Defendants have violated the overtime provisions of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §207;
- b) A declaratory judgment that Defendants' violations of the FLSA were willful;
- c) An award to Plaintiffs of damages for the unpaid overtime;
- d) An award to Plaintiffs of liquidated damages in an amount equal to the overtime compensation owed to him pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b);
- e) An award to Plaintiffs of reasonable attorney's fees and costs, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b); and
- f) An award of such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

COUNT II

Demand For Relief For Violations

Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act
43 P.S. § 333.104(c)

30. Plaintiffs restate and re-allege paragraphs 1 through 24 as paragraph 30 of this Count II.

31. Pursuant to the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act, Defendants were and remain obligated to compensate Plaintiff time and one half for all hours worked over forty in any week.

32. By failing to properly pay overtime due to Plaintiffs, Defendants willfully, knowingly, and/or recklessly violated the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act.

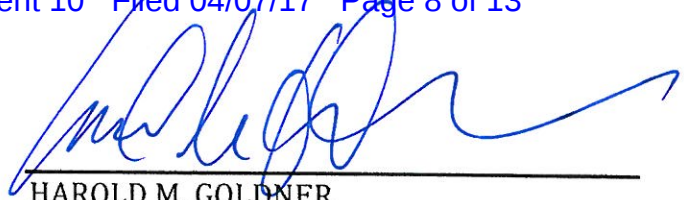

33. Because of Defendants' policy and practice of withholding overtime pay, Plaintiffs have been damaged in that they are not receiving wages due to him pursuant to the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant them the following relief:

- a) A declaratory judgment that Defendants have violated the overtime provisions of the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act;
- b) A declaratory judgment that Defendants' violations of the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act were willful;
- c) An award to Plaintiffs for unpaid overtime compensation;
- d) An award to Plaintiffs of reasonable attorney's fees and costs; and
- e) An award of such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.
